

1. Poverty reduction.
2. Prepare studies and research related to the overall social development of all kinds and support development issues.
3. Administer public awareness campaigns on the national level in several areas.
4. Organize cultural and human rights events.
5. Provide rehabilitation and training, especially for young people.
6. Support and develop public libraries.
7. Any other areas that do not conflict with the foundation system and its objectives and the law of associations and private institutions and civil laws in force.